

The Foreign Exchange Trading Academy, LLC

Who we are?

- We teach classes on trading through the Foreign Exchange Market, and both chart (technical) and news (fundamental) analysis
- We have authored two books (available on Amazon) with a third pending.
- We manage a small trust for clients.
- Our ideals are Affordability, Transparency, and Credibility.
- Learningcurrencytrading.com is our website

What do we do?/ What are classes like?

- We maintain Gototraining.com - an online classroom for students.
- The lectures are live and attendance is required.
- Classes are scheduled Sunday nights and either Tuesday or Wednesday depending on the class - Students must attend one per week.
- No special downloading is required
- Initially students download their own practice account so throughout the course they can practice trading on their own time.

Who will this benefit?

- Students who complete this course or have a minimum of 28 hours (one more hour a week of practice on their own) will have practical knowledge of financial markets.
- Completions of the class would also qualify for sponsorship for the series 34 Finance Exam which is the “Professional Forex Licensing Exam”
- Knowledge of all markets offers standout entries on resumes and includes a portfolio of profitable trades and transactions

Why is this beneficial for students?

- 25 percent of all graduating business majors find employment that involves the market as a whole.
- This is hands on practical knowledge and not theory of investment.
- Forex provides a well-rounded MACROECONOMIC view.
- Our students enjoy employment at financial giants and institutions such as Deutsche Bank, Goldman Sachs, as well as Master programs at Stanford and Bentley.
- Our course is a strong resume builder as evidenced by the continued positive feedback from employers

Where and when will this take place

- Online and interactive training lab as explained previously
- Live online lectures in the comfort of their homes, allow “raise their hand” can draw on each others chats, and chat with the TA

Budget/Cost Benefit Analysis

- The cost is $25-$35 (depending on circumstances) per week or 10 percent courtesy if paid in full.
- We have 8-15 people per class, however, we can accommodate 4-5 classes of 25 students at one time
- Every 3-4 weeks there will be a new class, however, students can join 10 days after the start of the class

Are the books included/what materials do they receive?

- We have supplementary materials in an easy to access online folder
- Students can purchase the required course books if they wish
- Students also have access to every recorded session
- Students can ask any questions, and have one on one sessions for extra help during the week

What else can we show you?

- The Foreign Exchange Trading Academy's syllabus
- Our recordings, assignments, and materials that are sent weekly.
- Instructor Requirements and continuing education
- Completed Student Assignments
- Our Gototraining.com Learning Platform
- The financial stability of our company
- Testimonials